

Evening Standard

Top-gear tourist: Ecurie25 members can speed off for the weekend in a Ferrari, complete with SatNav to take you to your hotel of choice

Have car, will spa

SUPERCAR club Ecurie25 believes in making life easy for its lucky members. If you fancy a couple of nights away but without the planning, it will hand you a preset SatNav fully programmed to take you to the door of a hand-picked hotel with lunch stop-off included.

Cotswold country pile Whatley Manor has a special two-night package for fans of flash cars and luxurious country-house spa hotels. That'll be most of us then. So pick up a Ferrari F340 Spider F1, Lamborghini Murcielago or perhaps an Aston Martin DB to drive to Whatley Manor in Malmesbury, Wiltshire, before settling in for the weekend at the hotel with its Michelin-starred chef, La Prairie Spa Aquarias spa and private cinema.

The package costs from £839 B&B per double room midweek with a seven-course tasting menu on one night, a serial Mud Chamber treatment for two guests and full use of Spa Aquarias. Available until the end of May. Car pick-up is from Old Street, EC1, or you can get the car delivered to your door for £65 within the M25.

For further information, call 01666 822 888 or log onto www.whatleymanor.com.

Membership costs of Ecurie25 range from £4,750 to £9,200 plus a one-off joining fee of £750. www.ecurie25.co.uk.

JF Country style: Whatley Manor