

Father`s Day Golf Haven at Stoke Park

Learn to play golf like a pro.... Stoke Park has the perfect Father`s Day package this year. Our golf focused package will be the perfect gift to get your dad playing like a pro.

Have a one hour golf lesson with one of the Head Teaching PGA Professionals on our 27 hole Championship golf course, which boasts superb facilities including a 10 bay driving range, pitching area with four bunkers and an indoor video analysis room. Being a hotel resident, your one hour lesson doesn't stop here. You can book a tee time and practice your skills in your own leisurely pace at any time over your two day break. If golf isn't what you are after then you can swap the one hour golf lesson with a one hour spa treatment and our award winning spa will definitely have a divine treatment for your dad and his partner to choose from.

Stoke Park's Fathers Day package includes:

2 night accommodation – stay in one of the exquisite bedrooms, all boasting the finest in interior design and comfort.

Three course dinner on one evening – Dine in our classically inspired Dining Room which offers contemporary British cuisine with a twist.

Full English Breakfast each morning – Whether you will be staying in the Pavilion or Mansion building, sit down with a newspaper and relax overlooking our golf course with a delicious breakfast.

One hour golf lesson or one hour spa treatment per person – Whether it is golf that you are after or a relaxing one treatment in our award winning SPA SPC, whichever one you choose, we can assure you that you will not be disappointed.

£299 per person – based on 2 people sharing a twin or double room. Our package is also available to purchase as a gift voucher valid from 20th June to 31st December 2009.
